

ARE YOU PLANNING FOR AFTER LOCKDOWN?

FREE PLANNING SURGERY

- 📍 Thinking about ways to extend your home?
- 📍 Have ideas on how to develop your land to grow your business?
- 📍 Have concerns about development in your area?
- 📍 Need advice on the best way to make your views heard when the new proposed Tunbridge Wells & Tonbridge local plans move forward to public examination?

FREE LOCAL PLANNING SURGERY FOR BUSINESSES AND RESIDENTS IN THE TUNBRIDGE WELLS AND TONBRIDGE AREAS

Three local planning practitioners; Gary Mickelborough, a Director of Bloomfields Chartered Town Planners (Paddock Wood), Simon Bell, a Partner of Knights Solicitors (Tunbridge Wells) and James Neill a local barrister based at Landmark Chambers, London, are offering a free virtual planning surgery consisting of a 30 minute advice session on any planning issue that concerns you.

This initiative is here to help the local community and keep the local economy running during these difficult times. By providing free professional and impartial planning and legal advice we hope to relieve some of the pressures on local public sector employees enabling them to focus on dealing with current issues.

HOW TO APPLY

Summarise the issue you would like to discuss in less than 400 words and email it to:

surgery@bloomfieldsltd.co.uk

PLEASE DO NOT ATTACH ANY DOCUMENTS

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

If it is something we feel we can help you with, we will get in touch to arrange either a phone call or a virtual Zoom call.

There is no obligation to instruct any of those providing the planning surgery to take your matter forwards following the initial free advice.

BROUGHT TO YOU BY

bloomfields
CHARTERED TOWN PLANNERS

KNIGHTS
SOLICITORS
YOUR PARTNERS IN LAW